Charlotte, NC – Love, romance and fun is back in Charlotte.

SOS Romance Planning Service, a company that specializes in creating and planning romantic adventures and moments for couples, now has a home in the Queen City.

Since 2019, SOS Romance Planning Service has connected with hundreds of couples to provide romantic rendezvous for various occasions, including Valentine’s Day, Anniversaries, and Birthdays, throughout the United States.

The company’s comprehensive range of romance services include Romantic Room Designs (Suite Experiences), Date Planning, Private Chef Experiences, Deluxe Picnic Dates, Luxury Transportation, and Spa Services. The company also manages travel arrangements for their clients.

“We understand that planning a romantic evening or getaway does not come easy to most people; but we believe in making sure our clients-that-become-family can focus on creating new memories, not stressing about the details,” said SOS Romance Planning Service owner Danielle M. Price; an electrical engineer by trade, who specializes in a different type of engineering now.

“Our goal is to help couples strengthen their relationships by restructuring their quality time, so they can create memories that last a lifetime,” Price added.

Along with vendors in North Carolina, SOS Romance Planning Service has resources in Los Angeles, CA; Houston, TX; Nashville, TN; Cleveland, Ohio; Washington D.C.; Atlanta, GA; Savannah, GA; and throughout South Florida.

Our expansive network allows us to curate unique experiences from start to finish for every ‘Romantic.’ We make it easy for you to just show up and enjoy yourself.
